Caledon Twp. East, Con. 3, Lot 1.

E $\frac{1}{2}$

Hilly, sandy and swampy. Creek entering in S.E. corner and flowing in a N.W. direction. Brick house and frame shed. Kilmanagh is situated on East corner, took its name from the Post Office. The mail came from Mono Road thrice a week off the Grey & Bruce. This was a flourishing little village back in 1860, but today is truly a deserted one. There was a distillery here run by a Mr. Williamson (a shoemaker) illicit. General store and licensed liquor store operated by Thomas Sanderson. Mr. Martin was a carriage builder here. There was a small Methodist church stood on this corner; a Mr. McGowan, a basket maker, was supposed to have burned it. Mr. Wm. McKenna was blacksmith here.

About 20 rods north on the 3rd line is a large blow sand hill. The road here used to drift badly and the early pioneer decided to insert a plank bottom. For 20 years it served the community as a roadway and in winter was very slippery. Later it was removed and a gravel one inserted.

W $\frac{1}{2}$

Hilly, sandy & swampy. No buildings, Watered by well.

(Bernard Kelly, 1933).

WEST HALF

Land Book "P" 1831-1833, U.C., Prov. Archives.

Petition read before the Council.

8 November, 1832.

ROBERT DODDS,

Stating that he purchased from William Johnson the right he had to Lot No. 27 in the 3 Concession (West half) in the Township of Caledon East of the Centre Road that the said Johnson failing to perform the Settlement Duties required the lot has been re-located and praying that the same may be restored to him.

Not recommended as the right of Johnson was not transferable and the Lot has since been appropriated to another person.
